Complain.

Complain is a way of expression to say that you are not satisfied with something or you don't like the way things are going on. We'll start from a simple example: If suppose your mom has cooked something you don't like, then immediately you start complaining about it that "You know that I don't like to eat this, then why have you cooked this today. I am not gonna eat this now." But, you should at least think before speaking & try to figure out that with how much efforts and love she has cooked the food for you.

Ok forget about it but, have you ever thought that how many people suffer daily to achieve only one meal in a day. Consider yourself very lucky and blessed that you have everything you want. But obviously it is the so called "human mentality" that, "the things which we get easily we don't have any value of it."

Complaining on each and everything will just make you distress and will throw you out from the happy moments too. So, stop complaining and thank "God" for this beautiful and glorious life. If you search them, there is no end to positivity in life.

Thank You.
